

WHO DO YOU FOLLOW?

NOT PAUL. NOT APOLLOS. CHRIST.

1 CORINTHIANS 1:1-17

1 Corinthians 1:1-17

V1-3 Saints in Sin City

V4-9 Corinthian Calling and Identity

V10-17 Paul's Appeal: Ditch Division

1 Corinthians 1:2

“To the church of God
that is in Corinth...”

- Diolkos (Greek: Δίολκος) means "haul-across"

Acts 18:8

“...And many of the Corinthians hearing Paul believed and were baptized.”

1 Corinthians 7:1

“Now concerning the matters about which you wrote...”

Acts 18:24-25

Now a Jew named Apollos, a native of Alexandria, came to Ephesus. He was an eloquent man, competent in the Scriptures. He had been instructed in the way of the Lord. And being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things concerning Jesus, though he knew only the baptism of John.

Acts 19:1

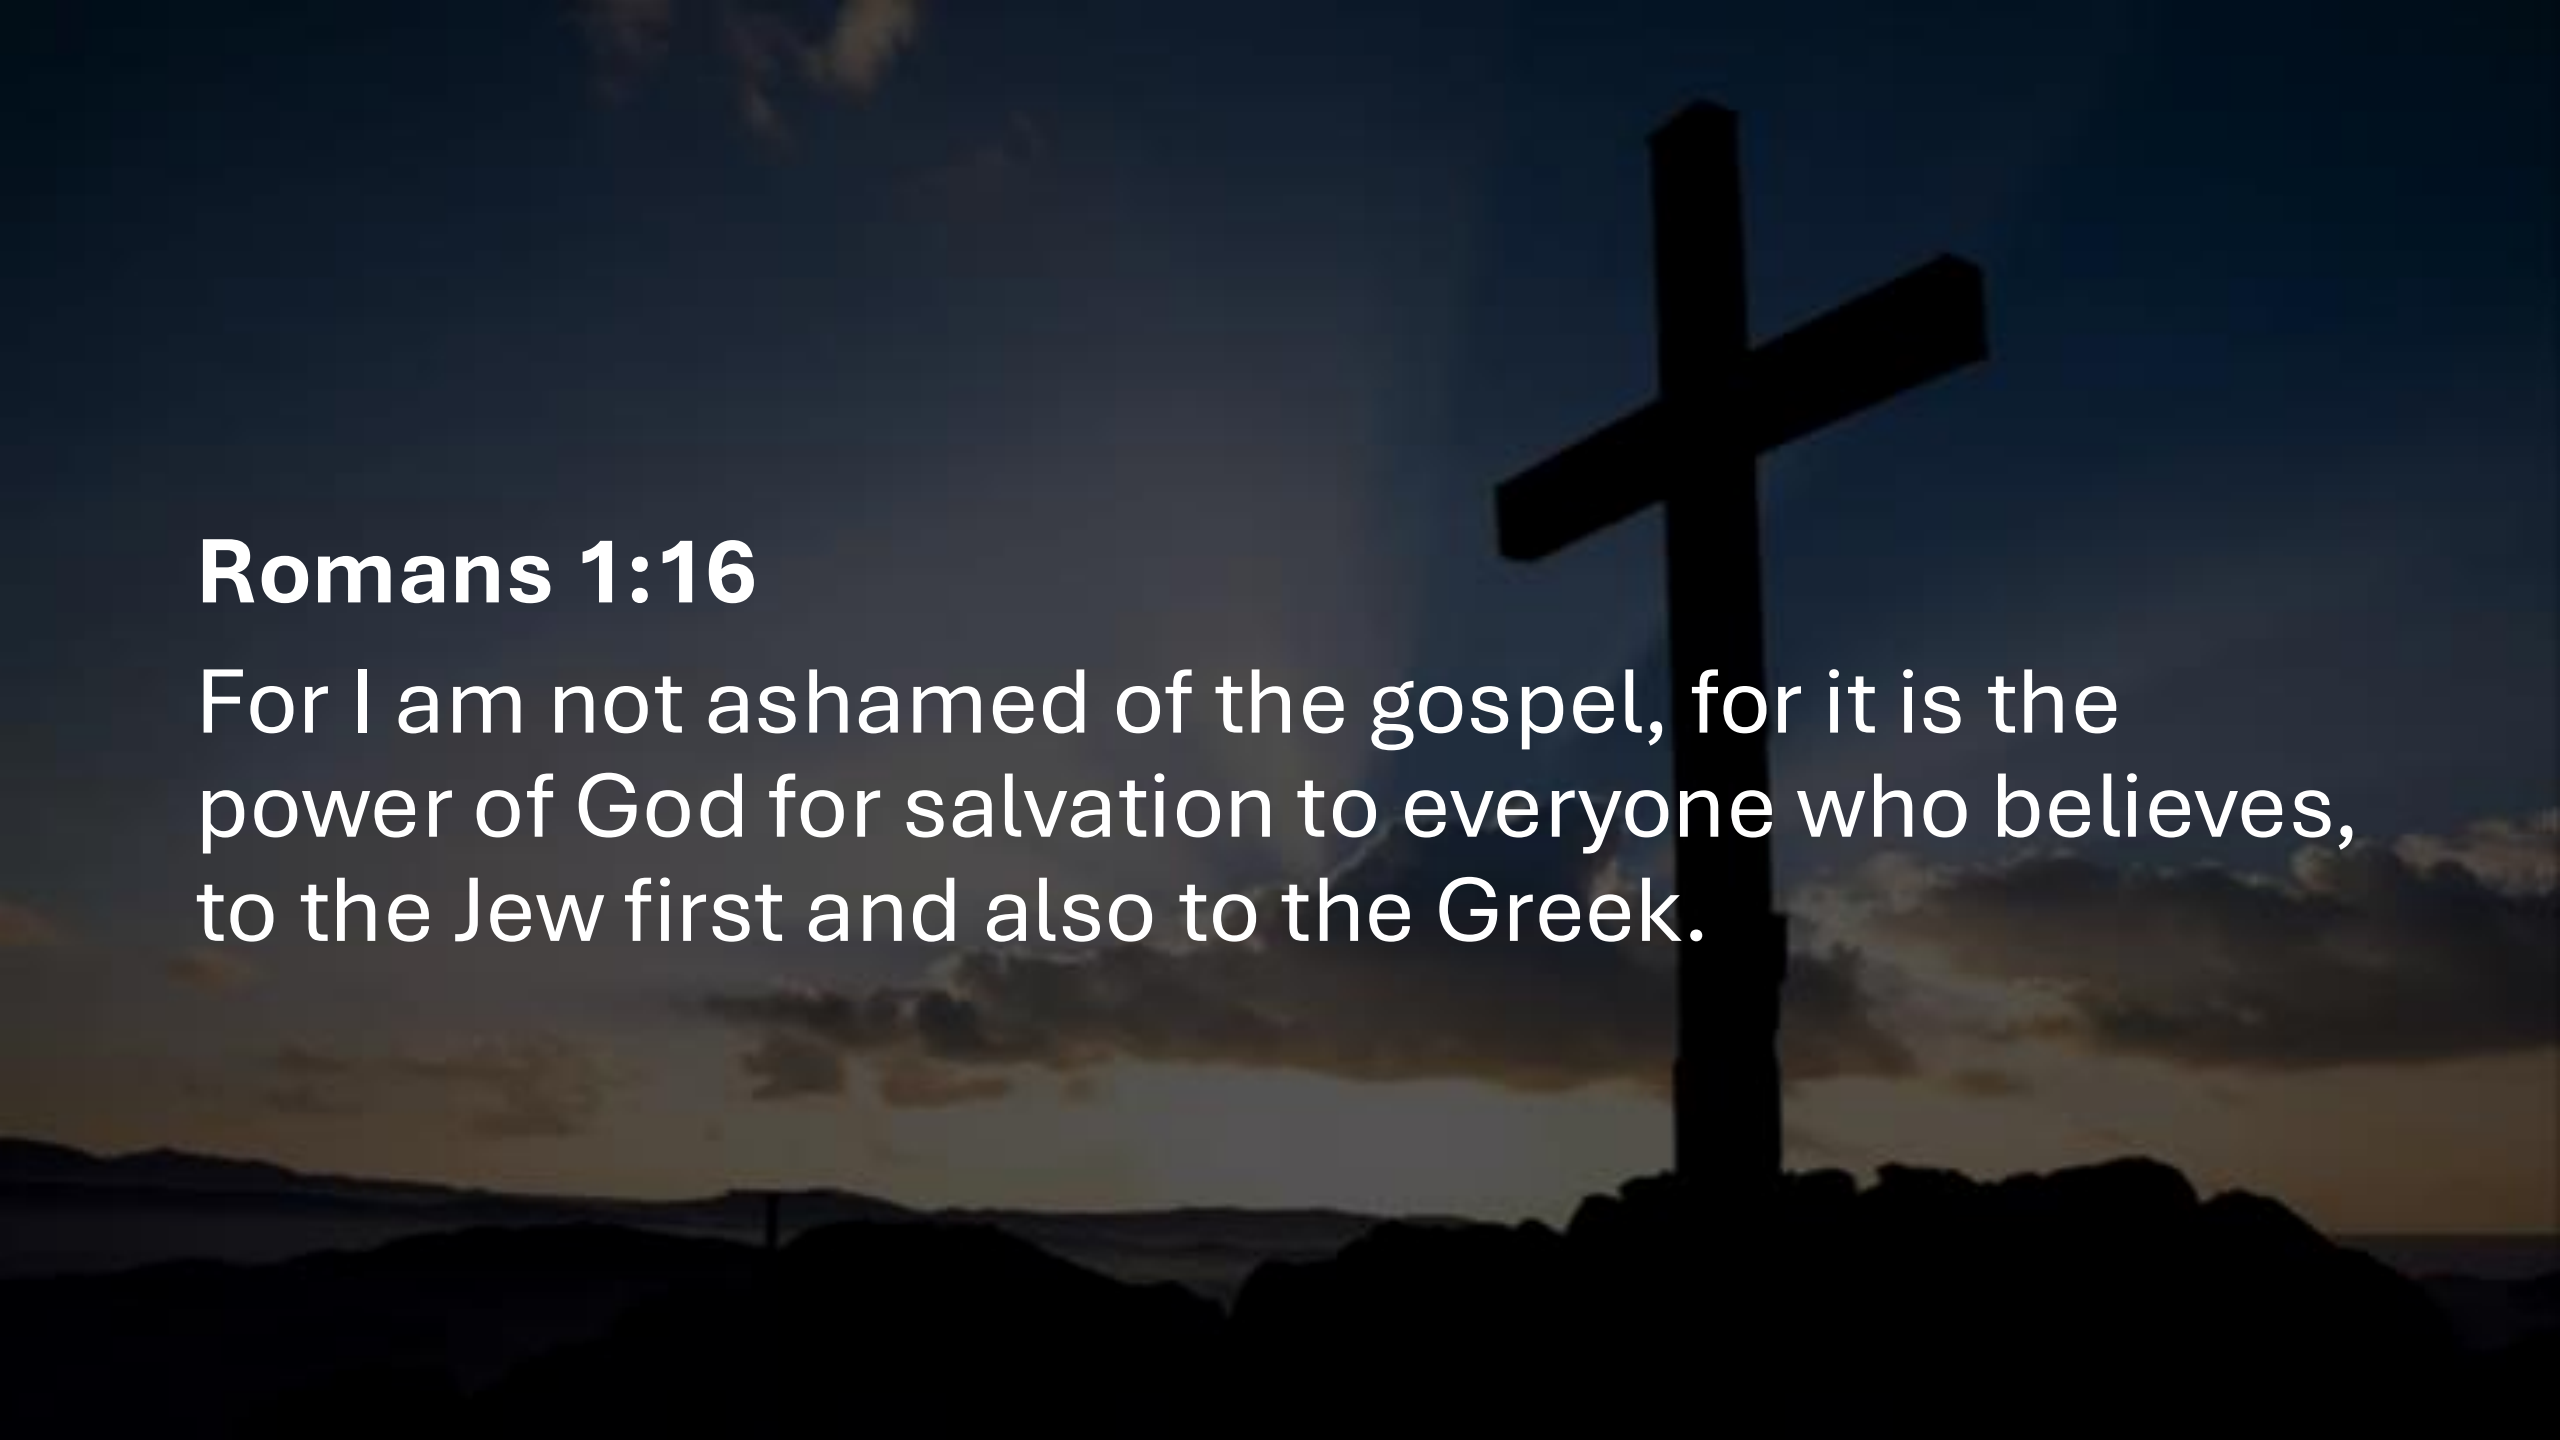

“And it happened that while Apollos was at Corinth...”

1 Corinthians 9:5

Do we not have the right to take along a believing wife, as do the other apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas?

1 Corinthians 3:5 -7

For when one says, “I follow Paul,” and another, “I follow Apollos,” are you not being merely human? What then is Apollos? What is Paul? Servants through whom you believed, as the Lord assigned to each. I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth.

A large, dark wooden cross stands prominently on a rocky, silhouetted hill. The background is a dramatic sky at sunset or sunrise, with soft, glowing light breaking through scattered clouds. The overall mood is solemn and contemplative.

Romans 1:16

For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.

Ephesians 2:4

But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ..

Romans 5:8

But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.
